Damage Claim Procedure

If you believe that your vehicle was damaged by an inspector during or as a result of an emissions test at an emissions testing station, you may complete and submit a damage claim form. You must submit the completed damage claim form within 30 days after the date of the emissions test that relates to the alleged damage. You also must submit any relevant information relating to your claim of vehicle damage within 30 days after submitting a damage claim.

Illinois Air Team is responsible for handling and responding to damage claims. It is our goal to resolve each claim as quickly as possible, while allowing time to conduct a thorough investigation. Within 60 days after receiving your damage claim form, Illinois Air Team shall notify you of the proposed resolution. In most cases, a response will be provided within 10 business days of your claim submission.

Following a final decision regarding your claim, you may also petition the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency (IEPA) for a review of the adequacy and completeness of the decision. To petition, you must complete and submit a Damage Claim Review Petition to the IEPA within 30 days after notification of the decision being reviewed. You may obtain a Damage Claim Review Petition by calling: 847-294-4000, or by writing to the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency at: 9511 W Harrison Street, Des Plaines, IL 60016, or emailing them at: EPA.VETP@Illinois.gov.
